

The Center would like to spend a few words to remember one of its founders

Filippo Frassati (* - *) had a complex life, as he went through some crucial moments in Italian history.

As soon as he entered Univeristy (in *), he became interested in *.

Frassati had a major role in preparing the Bibliografia italiana di storia militare (1987), as he especially took care of the section on *.

If you're interested in further information on Filippo Frassati's personality, it's possible to read this piece by Giorgio Rochat. Download it here.